Unless the Tribunal orders otherwise, or has not yet decided a pending request for confidentiality, the Tribunal will publish applications, notices of hearing, motions, notices of withdrawal, decisions and approved settlement agreements on the Tribunal's website. A person who obtains permission to make a visual or audio recording shall be subject to the directions of the Tribunal and shall not engage in any behaviour that detracts from the hearing.

Hearings may proceed orally or in writing or both. Hearings and parts of hearings that proceed orally may be conducted in one or more of the following modes:

- (b) with some or all participants physically present in the hearing room.

For any part of a hearing where some or all of the participants are physically present in the hearing room, the chair of the panel (but not necessarily all members of the panel) will be physically present in the hearing room.

(2) Oral hearings or oral parts of hearings – Tribunal’s authority

The Tribunal may determine the mode of an oral hearing or oral part of a hearing, including with respect to participants’ physical presence in the hearing room. In exercising that discretion, the Tribunal will consider subrules 9(3) and 9(4) below.

(3) Oral hearings or oral parts of hearings – default mode

Unless the Tribunal orders otherwise:

- (a) a witness giving oral testimony, and any person (whether party or representative) examining or cross-examining the witness will be physically present in the hearing room, and other participants in the hearing may also be physically present in the hearing room or may participate electronically; and
- (b) all other oral hearings, or oral parts of hearings, will proceed electronically.

(4) Oral hearings or oral parts of hearings – factors to be considered

In determining the appropriate mode of an oral hearing or oral part of a hearing, the Tribunal will consider, among other things:

- (a) the objective set out in rule 1, of conducting proceedings justly, expeditiously and cost-effectively;
- (b) the type of hearing (e.g., case management, merits);
- (c) the matters in dispute, and the issues to be addressed at the hearing;
- (d) any delay that might be caused by proceeding electronically or in a hearing room;
- (e) accessibility of the hearing to participants and the public;

- (h) facilitation of participation by vulnerable or disadvantaged individuals; and
- (i) health and safety considerations, and measures that may be taken to mitigate related risks.

(5) Oral hearings or oral parts of hearings – change of mode

Where the Tribunal has ordered that an oral hearing or oral part of a hearing proceed with some or all participants physically present in the hearing room, all participants must be prepared for the mode of any part of the hearing to change, including on short notice.

(6) Written hearings

A hearing shall be conducted as a written hearing if all parties consent, unless the Tribunal orders otherwise.

Even without the consent of all parties, the Tribunal may order that a hearing be conducted as a written hearing, unless:

- (b) a party satisfies the Tribunal that there is good reason not to conduct the hearing in writing.

10. Language of proceedings

A proceeding shall be conducted in English or in French or both, as the parties request.

(2) Language of documents

If a party requests that a proceeding be conducted wholly or partly in French, the Tribunal shall ensure any notice of hearing is translated into French.

Parties, witnesses and representatives participating in a hearing may submit documentary evidence or written submissions in English or in French.

The Tribunal has no obligation to translate documentary evidence or written submissions. A party may bring a motion requesting translation into English or French of documentary evidence and/or written submissions that is necessary for a fair hearing.

The Tribunal has no obligation to translate hearing transcripts.

(3) Interpreters for English and French

The Tribunal shall, upon request, provide an interpreter to translate to English from French, or French to English, during a hearing.

The obligation to limit disclosure of personal information extends to documents the party intends to enter into evidence, as well as to applications, motions, written submissions and affidavits.

12. Accessibility

If a party, representative or witness has an accessibility need that may affect the individual's ability to participate in a hearing, the individual shall notify the Registrar at least 30 days before the hearing.

13. Commencement of proceeding, title of proceeding and scheduling of hearings

(1) Commencement of proceeding

A proceeding is commenced by the Tribunal issuing a notice of hearing after an application is filed.

Before filing an application, the applicant must make reasonable efforts to consult the other parties and propose one or more dates to the Registrar for the first hearing in the proceeding.

(2) Title of proceeding

Every application shall contain a title of proceeding setting out the names of all the parties. The title of proceeding shall name the party or parties commencing the application as the applicant(s) and the opposite party or parties as the respondent(s). Where the Commission is not the applicant, the Commission shall be named as a respondent.

The Commission:

- (a) shall be so named in the title of proceeding as the party before the Tribunal; and
- (b) may be referred to throughout documents (other than in the title of proceeding) as "the Commission".

If parties are unable to agree, they must come to the hearing prepared to present competing schedules for discussion with the Tribunal.

(5) Decision not to process commencement of a proceeding

When a party files a document that relates to commencing a proceeding, the Tribunal or Registrar may decide not to process the document if it is incomplete or defective.

Where the size of a single PDF exceeds 500 pages, the party shall separate the PDF into two or more volumes, titled accordingly (e.g., Application Record Volume 1 of X, Motion Record Volume 2 of X).

(3) Exception

Where possible, documents must be filed in PDF. A document may also be filed in its native format, e.g., Microsoft Excel, or audio or video recording.

22. Amendment or particularization of application

(1) Amendment of application

An applicant may amend an application at any time with consent of the parties or with permission from the Tribunal granted on a motion using the form in Appendix B. The motion record shall include an amended version of the application that clearly indicates the amendments by underlining any new text and striking through any removed text. The Tribunal shall grant permission unless the amendment would be unfairly prejudicial to a party.

(2) Particularization of application

At any stage in a proceeding, the Tribunal may order an applicant to provide particulars necessary for a satisfactory understanding of the subject of the proceeding, including:

- (a) the grounds on which a remedy or order is being sought; and
- (b) a general statement of the facts being relied on.

23. Withdrawal of application or motion

(1) Notice of withdrawal

A party may withdraw, against one or more parties, an application or a motion at any time before a final determination by the Tribunal, by filing and serving every party with a notice of withdrawal using the form in Appendix H, and, in the case of withdrawal against some but not all parties, an amended application that clearly indicates the amendments that effect the withdrawal by underlining any new text and striking through any removed text.

(2) Title of proceeding

If an application is withdrawn against some but not all parties, the title of proceeding on all subsequent documents shall be as the Tribunal directs.

24. Participation in proceedings

(1) Change in representation

A party who is represented may:

- (a) change their representative by serving every other party with, and filing, notice of the change, including the name, address, telephone number and email address of the new representative; or
- (b) elect to appear on their own behalf by serving every other party with, and filing, notice of the change, including the party's address, telephone number and email address.

(2) Removal of representative of record

On a motion by a representative or party, the Tribunal may order the removal of a representative as the representative of record.

(3) Failure to attend or participate

If notice of a hearing has been given to a party and the party does not attend or participate in the hearing, the hearing may proceed in the party's absence and the party is not entitled to any further notice in the proceeding.

(4) Intervenors

On motion, the Tribunal may grant a person or company who is not a party to a proceeding intervenor status to participate in all or part of the proceeding. Subject to terms imposed by the Tribunal, the intervenor shall be a party.

25. Joint hearings

(1) Joint hearings with other securities administrators

The Tribunal may hold a hearing in or outside Ontario jointly with another body that is authorized by statute to administer or regulate trading in securities, commodities or derivatives.

(2) Request for a joint hearing

A request for a joint hearing shall be made either by including that request in the application, or if the proceeding has already been commenced, then by motion using the form in Appendix B.

26. Notice of constitutional question

A party who intends to question the constitutional validity or applicability of any legislation, regulation, bylaw, or rule of common law shall file notice of the constitutional question in accordance with s.109(2.1) of the Courts of Justice Act, RSO 1990, c C.43, and shall serve the notice on the Attorneys General of Canada and Ontario and on the other parties. The party must effect service and filing as soon as the circumstances requiring the notice are known and, in any event, shall file proof of service at least 15 days before the day on which the question is to be argued.

27. Summonses

At the request of a party, the Tribunal may issue a summons using the form in Appendix I to require a person resident in Ontario to:

- (a) give evidence under oath or affirmation at an oral hearing; and
- (b) to produce any document or thing specified in the summons at an oral hearing.

28. Disclosure

(1) Initial disclosure by the Commission in an enforcement proceeding

In an enforcement proceeding under s.127(1) of the Act, other than a proceeding to which ss.127(4.0.1), (4.0.2) or (4.0.3) applies, the Commission shall:

- (a) provide to every other party copies of all non-privileged documents in the Commission's possession that are relevant to the Commission's allegations, including documents that have a reasonable possibility of being relevant to the respondents' ability to make full answer and defence to the Commission's allegations;
- (b) identify to every other party all other things in the Commission's possession that are relevant to the Commission's allegations, including those that have a reasonable possibility of being relevant to the respondents' ability to make full answer and defence to the Commission's allegations; and
- (c) where inspection of an original document or thing identified in (a) or (b) of this rule is requested by a party, make the document or thing available for inspection.

(2) Disclosure of book of documents

In any proceeding, a party shall serve on every other party to the proceeding a book of documents containing a copy of the documents, and identifying the other things, that the party intends to rely on or enter as evidence at a hearing.

(3) Witness lists and summaries

In any proceeding, a party shall file, and serve on every other party, a list of the witnesses (including witnesses that are parties) that the party intends to call. The party shall serve on every other party a summary of the testimony that each witness is expected to give, which summary shall include, unless previously disclosed:

- (a) the witness's name and address, or if the address is not provided, the name and address of a person through whom the witness can be contacted;
- (b) the substance of the witness's expected testimony; and
- (c) the identification of any document or thing to which the witness is expected to refer.

Witness lists and witness summaries are not adjudicative records and are not available to the public.

(4) Failure to disclose

A party who fails to comply with a disclosure obligation in these rules or in an order of the Tribunal may not, without the Tribunal's permission, rely on material or testimony that was not properly disclosed.

29. Evidence

(1) Affidavits – form

An affidavit that is filed separately, and not as part of an application record or motion record, shall be in a bookmarked PDF that includes all exhibits referred to in the affidavit, and a table of contents that identifies each exhibit (e.g., “Exhibit A”) and briefly describes the exhibit (e.g., “Call logs”).

The file name of the affidavit shall contain:

- (a) “Affidavit”;
- (b) the name of the affiant; and
- (c) the date the affidavit was sworn or affirmed, or the word “Draft” if the affidavit has not yet been sworn or affirmed.

Unless all parties consent and the Tribunal permits, any witness who provides affidavit evidence must be available for cross-examination at the hearing at which the affidavit evidence will be tendered.

(2) Exception

Where possible, documents must be filed in PDF. A document may also be filed in its native format, e.g., Microsoft Excel, or audio or video recording.

(3) Affidavit – required by the Tribunal

The Tribunal may order that part or all of the evidence of a witness be provided by affidavit and may set timelines for the affidavit evidence to be served on every other party and filed with the Tribunal.

(4) Statement of agreed facts and joint book of documents

Before a hearing at which evidence will be tendered, parties are encouraged to agree on the evidence that is not in dispute. Parties are encouraged to file a statement of agreed facts, and to file a joint book of documents containing a copy of the documents that any of the parties intends to adduce as evidence, where authenticity and admissibility are not in dispute.

A joint book of documents must include a table of contents identifying each document by its name and date, where applicable. The joint book shall be a bookmarked PDF, with each bookmark including the title of the bookmarked item.

The filename of the joint book shall include:

- (a) “Joint book of documents”;
- (b) the names of the parties filing the joint book (e.g., “Commission and [respondent name]”), unless all parties are filing the book jointly, in which case this is not necessary; and
- (c) the date on which the joint book is filed.

(5) Documentary aids prepared by a party for the hearing

If a party intends to rely on a summary chart or other aid, which purports to distill or analyze other evidence (such as a source and use of funds analysis or a chronology), the party shall, no later than ten days before the hearing, serve on every other party:

- (a) the chart or other aid; and
- (b) an affidavit from the witness the party intends to call to testify about how the chart or other aid was prepared.

If there is no dispute as to whether the chart or other aid fairly distills or analyzes the underlying evidence, then the party may file the documents at the hearing. The witness’s affidavit is sufficient, and the witness need not testify orally as to how the document was prepared. The opposing parties are not precluded from cross-examining the witness on the witness’s affidavit, and the party calling the witness may re-examine.

This subrule does not apply to expert evidence (see rule 30).

(6) Division of large PDFs

Where the size of a single PDF exceeds 500 pages, the party shall separate the PDF into two or more volumes, titled accordingly (e.g., Affidavit of A.B. Volume 1 of X, Affidavit of A.B. Volume 2 of X).

30. Expert evidence

(1) Notice of intention to call expert

A party who intends to call an expert to give opinion evidence at a hearing shall provide every other party to the proceeding with notice of the party’s intention to call an expert, including a summary of the issues on which the expert will be testifying.

(2) Service of expert report

A party who intends to introduce expert testimony shall serve the expert’s report and qualifications on every other party.

(3) Expert reports in response and reply

(4) Notice of objection to expert testimony

A party that objects to the admissibility of the expert's testimony must notify every other party, identifying the grounds for objection.

(5) Notice of intention to cross-examine expert

A party who intends to cross-examine an expert must notify every other party.

(6) Expert reports as evidence

The Tribunal may set a timeline for:

- (a) the above steps;
- (b) the filing of expert reports before the hearing; and
- (c) parties' submissions, before or at the hearing, about whether the Tribunal should admit a report as evidence, and if so, the weight the Tribunal should give to that evidence.

After receiving submissions from the parties, the Tribunal may admit the report and may direct that the expert need not attend the hearing to give oral testimony.

31. Submissions

(1) Generally

Citations of authorities in written submissions shall, where applicable, identify the particular passages on which the party relies, and shall, where possible, include a hyperlink to a free, publicly available online source (e.g., CanLII, Ontario e-Laws). The hyperlink shall, where applicable, link to the specific paragraph(s) or statutory provision(s) on which the party intends to rely.

Written submissions shall be in a bookmarked PDF that includes:

- (a) the submissions themselves;
- (b) the cover or first page of, and relevant excerpts of, any cited authorities that are not available from a free, publicly available online source; and
- (c) a table of contents that briefly describes each item contained in the PDF.

Each bookmark entry shall identify and describe the bookmarked item.

(2) Format

Where the size of a single PDF would exceed 500 pages, the party shall separate the PDF into two or more volumes, titled accordingly (e.g., Written Submissions Volume 1 of X, Written Submissions Volume 2 of X).

The filename of the submissions shall include the document type, i.e., “Submissions”, the name of the party filing the document, and the date on which the submissions are filed.

(3) Condensed Book to supplement oral closing submissions

Each party who will be making oral closing submissions is encouraged to file a condensed book in advance, to supplement those submissions.

The condensed book shall be a bookmarked PDF that contains:

- (a) a table of contents describing each document by its nature and date, and
- (b) any of the following to which the party intends to refer during oral submissions:
 - (i) any PowerPoint or similar presentation;
 - (ii) any excerpts from hearing transcripts; and
 - (iii) the first page, and other relevant pages, of any authorities, exhibits or other documents.

Each bookmark shall identify and describe the bookmarked item.

The filename of the condensed book shall include:

- (a) “Condensed book”;
- (b) the name of the party(ies) filing the condensed book; and
- (c) the date on which the condensed book is filed.

(4) Draft orders

Any party seeking an order from the Tribunal shall provide a draft of the terms of the order sought, as part of their closing submissions. The draft order must identify the statutory or other provision that gives the Tribunal jurisdiction to make the order sought.

32. Motions

(1) Obligations of moving party

A party who intends to bring a motion shall, where practical:

- (a) canvass the responding parties for the following, prior to the hearing of the motion:

- (ii) responding parties' preliminary position(s) on the motion; and
 - (iii) an agreed-upon schedule for the exchange of materials for the motion, to be presented to the Tribunal for consideration;
- (b) arrange with the Registrar a date for a case management hearing; and
 - (c) file the motion using the form in Appendix B and serve the motion on every other party.

(2) Motion materials

The schedule for the exchange of materials for a motion shall be as agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Tribunal. The schedule shall anticipate the filing of:

- (a) affidavit(s) setting out the facts relied on by the moving party, if any;
- (b) affidavit(s) in response to the motion, if any;
- (c) affidavit(s) from the moving party in reply, if any; and
- (d) written submissions.

(3) Examination of affiant(s)

A party who files an affidavit shall make the affiant reasonably available for cross-examination by any adverse party before the motion hearing.

Before or at a motion hearing, the Tribunal may order or permit oral testimony and cross-examination of an affiant at that hearing.

(4) Motion without notice

The Tribunal may permit a party to make a motion without notice if:

- (a) the nature of the motion or the circumstances make service of the motion impractical or unnecessary; or
- (b) the delay necessary to effect service would be likely to have serious consequences.

(5) Motion record

The moving party shall file a motion record that conforms to the requirements in rule 21.

33. Confidential conferences

(1) Confidential conferences

At any stage of a proceeding, a party may request or the Tribunal may direct that the parties participate in a confidential conference to consider:

- (a) the settlement of any or all of the issues;

- (b) the simplification of the issues;
- (c) facts that may be agreed upon; and
- (d) any other matter that may further a just, expeditious and cost-effective disposition of the proceeding.

A confidential conference is not a hearing.

(2) Disqualification of confidential conference Adjudicator

An adjudicator who presides at a confidential conference at which the parties attempt to settle issues shall not preside at a subsequent hearing in the proceeding unless the parties consent.

(3) Confidentiality

A confidential conference shall be confidential and no transcript shall be made.

34. Adjournments

(1) Exceptional circumstances

Any party that requests that a hearing be adjourned must satisfy the Tribunal that the adjournment furthers the objectives outlined in rule 1.

Every merits hearing, sanctions and costs hearing, and motion hearing shall proceed on the scheduled date unless a party satisfies the Tribunal that there are exceptional circumstances requiring an adjournment.

(2) How to request an adjournment

A party who requests that a merits hearing, sanctions and costs hearing, or motion hearing be adjourned shall file and serve a motion using the form in Appendix B.

35. Sanctions and costs hearing

(1) Separate hearing for sanctions and costs

In an enforcement proceeding, if the Tribunal makes a finding that provides a basis for sanctions and costs, the Tribunal shall hold a separate hearing to consider sanctions and costs, unless the parties have agreed that all issues may be decided in one hearing.

The Tribunal shall set a schedule for the sanctions and costs hearing.

(2) Materials in support of a request for costs

If the Commission requests costs, it shall file supporting materials that include:

- (a) the amount of costs requested;
- (b) the basis of the request for costs;

- (c) a summary statement of hours and fees, supported by time records setting out relevant hourly rates;
- (d) a summary statement of disbursements supported by invoices and receipts, or if those cannot be obtained, by a written record of disbursements and associated dates; and
- (e) an affidavit declaring that the information contained in the time records and the summary statement of disbursements are true and accurate, and that the disbursements were incurred directly and necessarily as a result of the investigation and/or hearing of the proceeding.

36. Summary dismissal of application or motion

(1) Grounds for dismissal

The Tribunal may dismiss an application or motion without a hearing on the following grounds:

- (a) the application or motion is frivolous, vexatious, or commenced in bad faith;
- (b) the application or motion relates to matters that are outside the Tribunal's jurisdiction; or
- (c) the statutory requirements for bringing the application or motion have not been met.

(2) Notice

Before dismissing an application or motion under this rule, the Tribunal shall:

- (a) give the parties notice of its intention to dismiss the application or motion;
- (b) provide the reasons for its intention to dismiss the application or motion;

A settlement conference is not a hearing. A settlement conference and all materials filed in support of the proposed settlement shall be confidential. No transcript shall be made of the settlement conference.

(2) Request for a settlement conference

The parties to a proposed settlement shall file a joint request for the settlement conference no later than five days before the requested date for the settlement conference, which request shall include:

- (a) a draft of the proposed settlement agreement or a joint memorandum setting out the terms of the proposed settlement; and
- (b) any materials in support of the settlement.

(3) Vacating scheduled hearing dates

If one or more hearing dates are scheduled in a proceeding in which a settlement conference is requested, the parties may request in their materials or at the settlement conference that the settlement conference panel vacate some or all of those hearing dates.

(4) Disqualification of settlement conference adjudicator

An adjudicator who presides at a settlement conference shall not preside at a subsequent hearing in the proceeding other than the public settlement hearing under rule 38, unless the parties consent.

38. Public settlement hearing

(1) Request for a settlement hearing

If the parties to a settlement request a hearing to approve the settlement, they shall file a joint request at least three days before the requested date for the settlement hearing, which request shall include:

- (a) an application, if one has not previously been filed;

(2) Notice

The Tribunal shall issue a notice of hearing after a request that complies with subrule 38(1) has been filed.

(3) Settlement hearing panel

The adjudicators that preside at a hearing to consider a settlement shall include at least one adjudicator that presided at the settlement conference relating to the settlement.

The timelines for delivery are guided by these rules and may be varied by the Tribunal.

HEARING CHECKLIST

The hearing checklist (see Appendix L) must be filed five days before the final case management hearing.

The hearing checklist is not an adjudicative record and will not be available to the public.

The following information may assist with the completion of the checklist:

LAPTOP AND INTERNET ACCESS

Permanent IT Equipment Set-Up in Each Hearing Room

Each hearing room is equipped with at least two laptops that are connected to the A/V system (one for the Commission and one for respondents) that displays content to the public screen and to the monitors in front of the panel and in front of the parties.

Parties may bring their own laptops.

Each hearing room is equipped with a WIFI hub to provide internet access to the parties upon request.

VIDEOCONFERENCING

Each hearing room has a videoconference system.

If a witness will be testifying by video-conference, indicate the following information on the hearing checklist: the witness' name, anticipated date and time for the witness' testimony, and the witness' email address.

BOOK OF DOCUMENTS

Each party shall provide its book of documents to the Registrar electronically, along with the Index File, at least five days before the start of the merits hearing.

The book of documents must contain all of the documents that the party intends to enter into evidence at the merits hearing.

Any documents provided to the Registrar will only be seen by the panel if the document is subsequently introduced as evidence at the hearing.

FORMAT OF DOCUMENTS

All documents (including text and image/picture documents) shall be provided as PDF documents with embedded underlying Optical Character Recognition (OCR) text. For scanned documents, the PDF document must be processed using OCR software and the PDF must be searchable using full text searching.

A document may also be provided to the Registrar in its native format, e.g., Microsoft Excel, or audio or video recording.

Documents must be accessible, readable, printable and free of computer viruses, malware, Trojan horses or other items of a destructive nature. If any such item is detected, the document will be rejected and deemed not to have been received. The Registrar will request that the document be disinfected or recreated and then resubmitted.

REDACTING DOCUMENTS

Redactions of PDF documents must remove the embedded underlying OCR text. Simply blacking out the text is not sufficient. Various software products may be used for redactions. Consult your software's manual for specifics about redacting and removing embedded underlying OCR text. As a general guideline:

- Use the software redaction tool to block out the confidential text;
- Finalize/burn-in all redactions;
- Ensure the underlying OCR text is removed;
- Re-OCR the document; and
- Review the document to ensure that the redacted text does not show up in the OCR text.

PROVIDING DOCUMENTS TO THE REGISTRAR

Each party must provide the Registrar with the book of documents electronically, which can include delivery by e-mail, or other means of electronic transfer (i.e., SharePoint) as considered appropriate by the Registrar.

When delivering documents to the Registrar, always specify the following:

- matter name
- file number
- name of party providing documents; and
- representative for the party (if applicable).

Documents provided by e-mail shall be sent to the Registrar at registrar@capitalmarketstribunal.ca. The email and its attachments shall not exceed the size of 30MB. If the total size of the documents exceeds 30MB, then a secure link must be used.

AFFIDAVITS

Any party intending to introduce affidavit evidence at a merits hearing should provide the affidavit, as well as any attachments, to the Registrar as soon as practicable before the hearing. The party should adhere to the requirements listed above when filing the documents with the Registrar.

INDEX FILE

The Index File lists and describes all the documents contained in the book of documents. It is a comma delimited text file in “.csv” format (which can be created in Excel or other programs). See Appendix M for an example of an Index File. A downloadable Index File template is available on the Tribunal website.

The Index File and the book of documents are filed with the Registrar at the same time, at least five days before the start of the hearing.

The Index File is not an adjudicative record and will not be available to the public.

INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE INDEX FILE

The Index File must include the relevant information in all the mandatory fields, where applicable. The mandatory fields are identified below with an asterisk (“*”). The additional optional fields should be completed wherever possible, as a matter of best practice. See below and Appendix M for examples.

The Index File contains the following fields:

A*	B*	C*	D	E*	F	G	H	I*	J*	K*	L*	M	N
Document ID	Unitized Parent Document ID	Confidential Parent Doc ID	Date	Description	Type	Author	Recipient	Path	Confidential	Redacted	Format	Native File name	Themes
ABC000001	ABC000001		13/06/2013	Affidavit of [Name]	Affidavit	[Name]		ABC000001.pdf			pdf		Transaction 1
ABC000104C		ABC000104C	05/05/2013	List of Shares sold during 2013	Report			ABC000104C.pdf	C		pdf		Transaction 2
ABC000104R		ABC000104C	05/05/2013	List of Shares sold during 2013	Report			ABC000104R.pdf		R	pdf		Transaction 2

The field names entered into the first row of the Index File must be exactly as shown, with no extra spaces or other punctuation.

Column A – DocumentID – Mandatory field:

The DocumentID is a unique identifier that the party creates to name each of the documents in the book of documents. Each document must have a unique alphanumeric DocumentID, such as ABC000001, ABC000002, etc. No two documents can have the same DocumentID. DocumentIDs have no prescribed length.

When the parties have previously exchanged documents electronically using DocumentIDs, the parties may continue to use the same DocumentIDs for the Index File. The parties do not need to rename the document.

At the merits hearing, a document will be referred to by its DocumentID number or by its exhibit number if the document is marked as an exhibit by the Tribunal.

Column B –Unitized Parent DocID – Mandatory field:

Column B must be entered when individual documents are part of a family of related documents. For example, an email with attached documents is referred to as a “family”. The email itself is referred to as the “parent” and the attachments are referred to as the “children”. Document unitization is the process of preserving the relationship between the individual documents in the family (e.g. the email and its attachments). It allows the family of documents to be marked together as one exhibit at the e-hearing.

A family usually includes documents that are attached to each other. In addition, for the purposes of the Index File, a family of documents can also include any group of related, similar documents that a party intends to have entered as a single exhibit during the merits hearing (e.g. a set of financial statements for a single company, banking records for a specific account, phone records for a single phone number, etc.).

For each document that is part of a family, including the parent and all children, identify the family by entering the parent document's DocumentID in Column “B” (the Unitized Parent DocID Field).

Column C – Confidential Parent DocID - Mandatory field:

If the party intends to request that part of a document be confidential and not available to the public, Column C must be entered for both the original and redacted versions of the document.

Column C need not be entered if the party intends to request that the entire document be confidential.

Column C is used to unitize the original unredacted document and the redacted version into a family of two documents. The original document is the “parent” and the redacted version of the document is the “child”. Identify the confidential family by entering the original unredacted document's DocumentID in Column “C” (the Confidential Parent DocID Field) for both the original and redacted versions of the document.

These confidential families are separate and apart from the related document families discussed in Column B. Confidential families can occur as sub-families, within larger families of related documents.

Column D - Date - Optional field:

Enter the date of the document (if available) in Column D in mm/dd/yyyy format. Partial dates are not accepted.

Column E - Description - Mandatory field:

Enter the “Re:” line, title or short description of the document in Column E. Examples of document descriptions are: affidavit of [Name], email attachment, audio recording of [Name], etc.

Column F - Type - Optional field:

Enter the type of document in Column F (e.g. contract, email, letter, etc.).

Column G - Author - Optional field:

Enter the name of the author(s) of the document in Column G, if applicable. If the author is an individual, enter the name in this format: “last name, first name”. For multiple authors, separate each author’s name by a semi colon.

Column H - Recipient – Optional field:

Enter the name of the document’s recipient(s), if applicable (e.g. for emails, reports, and memos, etc.). If the recipient is an individual, enter the name in the following format: “last name, first name”. For multiple recipients, separate each recipient’s name by a semi colon.

Column I - Path – Mandatory field:

The path is the DocumentID, followed by the document’s file extension (e.g.

ABC00001.pdf, ABC00020.xls).

Column J - Confidential - Mandatory field:

If the party intends to request that the document be confidential, enter a “C” in Column J. For each such document, ensure that the “C” suffix is also added to the DocumentID in Column A.

Column K - Redacted - Mandatory field:

If the document is a redacted version of a document the party intends to request be confidential, enter an “R” in Column K.

Do not enter an “R” in Column K for documents that have been redacted in accordance with rule 11.

Column L – Format – Mandatory field:

Enter the document’s file extension (e.g. pdf, xlsx, mp3, wav) in Column L.

Column M – Native Filename – Optional field:

Enter the original filename of the document in Column M. The original filename is the name given by the document’s author at the time the document was created or last modified.

Column N – Themes – Optional field:

Use Column N to identify a theme related to a document. For example, the theme may indicate a witness, subject or issue related to the document.
