ORDER

(Section 8 of the Securities Act, RSO 1990, c S.5)

WHEREAS on April 6, 2026, the Capital Markets Tribunal issued an order dismissing Peter Michael Deeb’s motion for a stay of the Final Order and Decision on Sanctions and Costs of the Canadian Investment Regulatory Organization dated February 3, 2026, pending the disposition of Deeb’s application for review of that decision and the Liability Decision of CIRO dated April 14, 2025, and ordered that the interim stay granted by the Tribunal on March 9, 2026 (Interim Stay Order), remain in effect for 10 business days following the Tribunal’s April 6 order;

AND WHEREAS on April 16, 2026, Deeb requested a further order that the Interim Stay Order remain in effect for an additional 15 business days;

ON READING Deeb’s request and correspondence from the parties, and on considering that the representatives for CIRO and the Commission do not oppose the request and consent to the request being heard in writing;

IT IS ORDERED that the Interim Stay Order shall remain in effect until May 11, 2026.
